70 YEARS OF VISION.
DECADES OF LEADERSHIP.
A LEGACY FOR GENERATIONS.

Celebrating the 70TH Birthday

Of our visionary Chairman,
Mr. Parmanand Jhamtani.

A Tribute from loved ones

I have known Parmanandji since our school days, when he was my senior and someone every student admired for his brilliance and sincerity. Over the years, that admiration has only grown into deep respect and affection.

What I admire most is not just his remarkable success as a businessman, but the warmth and thoughtfulness with which he values every relationship. The fact that he personally remembers and wishes members of his extended family on their birthdays - even among nearly 15,000 people - truly reflects the kind of person he is.

I feel fortunate to have known him through the years and to have his friendship in my life. On his 70th birthday, I wish Parmanandji good health, happiness and many more fulfilling years ahead.

With warmest wishes and deepest respect,

- Mr. Sunil Adwani

Today, we come together to celebrate a truly special member of our society, Parmanand Ji, as he reaches a memorable milestone- his 70th birthday on August 14, 2026!

Always cheerful, social, and spontaneous, he brightens up every gathering with his wonderful sense of humor and spontaneously witty jokes. He sets a fine example for all of us with his disciplined routine, never missing his daily morning and evening walks and exercise.

What truly sets him apart and is truly very commendable is his unique and heartfelt tradition: he notes down the name and birth date of almost everyone he meets. With an incredible contact list of over 5,000 people, he never forgets a birthday, always sending a thoughtful message without fail.

For many, he goes even further to make their day truly special by visiting them with a cake, a bouquet, a ceremonial shawl and the recitation of Gayatri Mantra for their long, healthy and prosperous life !

Today, the turn is ours to wish him! May your 70th birthday bring you the same immense joy, warmth, and blessings that you selflessly spread to thousands of others every single day. Wishing you a very happy, healthy and a year as cheerful as you ahead!

- Wedhikar Family

Love you always, Dada. Have the happiest birthday!

- Mansi Sabnani

It is a delight to greet and wish a truly unique personality, Parmanand (Pama, as we old friends call him), on his milestone birthday.

I first met Pama as a college mate nearly 50 years ago. His knack for spotting business opportunities was evident even then; he became quite famous at COEP for supplying mathematical calculators. His entrepreneurial success is there for all to see, but what is truly admirable is that he has remained the same down-to-earth person—very grounded and always proud of his humble beginnings.

Around a decade ago, when I relocated to Pune from London, our connection was revived in Aundh, where he introduced me to the BYS Yoga classes conducted by his better half, Bhavanaji.

Later, as we became closer as the Spires family, we also became regular partners in our morning yoga sessions. His topical jokes have certainly added a different flavour to the one-minute laughter sessions!

As we all know, his dedication and meticulous organisation are legendary. He brings people together, spreads happiness, and puts a smile on thousands of faces throughout the year.

Today, on his milestone birthday, let us take up the initiative of getting Parmanand's name into the Guinness Book of World Records!

Here's wishing Pama continued good health, happiness, and many more years of spreading joy and bringing people together as a truly distinguished member of the wider community.

- Mr. Uttam Gadkari

Happy Birthday, Parmanand Jijaji!

Today, I want to thank you not just as my brother-in-law, but as someone who truly shaped my career and my life. The career I have today is because of you. Your guidance, faith in me, and constant support gave me the direction and opportunities that changed my life, and I will always remain grateful for that. I deeply value your wisdom, your kindness, and the bond we share.

Wishing you a year filled with happiness, good health, peace, and countless blessings. May you always keep smiling and inspiring everyone around you. Just as you have always stood by me, I will always be there for you.

With heartfelt gratitude, love, and respect,

Your brother-in-law,

- Kuldip Dadlani

Wishing you a very Happy Birthday, Parmanand Jhamtani ji!

If there were a Guinness World Record for spreading happiness, kindness, and smiles, you would surely be its proud record holder.

The love and warmth with which you wish everyone and make people feel special is truly inspiring. The universe always gives it back to you many times over, and that is the real secret behind the happiness and blessings your family is blessed with.

Wishing you wonderful health, endless happiness, and a truly blessed year ahead. Stay the amazing person you are.

- Hetal Thakar

Dear Jhamtaniji,

On your 70th birthday, we would like to wish you a day filled with joy, pride, and wonderful memories as you reminisce seven decades of life, which have been a remarkable journey, filled with experiences, wisdom, and countless moments that have shaped not just your life, but also the lives of those of so many around you.

May this milestone year bring you good health, happiness, and many more meaningful moments with your loved ones. Your presence, guidance, and warmth continue to inspire everyone who knows you and may the years ahead be just as fulfilling and joyful.

- Sethis

Wishing you a very happy 70th birthday to a kind, gracious, and genuinely wonderful gentleman. Your warmth, wisdom, and generosity have touched everyone fortunate enough to know you.

- Chasem Yakhshi

Editor's Note

Dear Readers,

It is an absolute pleasure to bring you this edition of JTribe Annual Buzz, where we take a moment to reflect, celebrate, and share the key highlights of everything that unfolded across the Jhamtani family over the past financial year. Every year brings new milestones, but what truly anchors our journey is our commitment to living our core values: Customer Happiness, being Better Than Yesterday, Thinking Long-Term, and creating a Positive Impact on Every Life Touched.

This year, we took that commitment even further by embracing Kaizen—the belief in making small, continuous improvements every day to ensure we are constantly evolving and becoming better than yesterday. This guiding spirit was central to our Roadmap & AOP Day, where our Senior Leadership and teams came together to set our vision for the year, with an unwavering focus on embedding Quality First into our daily work, execution, and processes.

Our commitment to quality and growth translated into remarkable progress on the ground:

Milestone Launches: We successfully introduced landmark developments, including Ace Ayodhya at Thergaon, Jhamtani Elevate studio apartments at Mundhwa, and the ultra-luxurious Ace Abundance – XO Series at Mundhwa, along with the grand opening of our new Jhamtani Cerakraft showroom on Balewadi High Street.

Key Handovers: We celebrated life-changing moments with our customers through smooth and professional possession ceremonies, including handovers at Ace Abode (A & B Wings).

Beyond real estate, building strong and meaningful connections remains at the heart of the JTribe culture:

Nurturing the Future: We were thrilled to roll out the Rising Stars initiative, bringing bright smiles to our extended family by distributing personalised school bags and Dreamy Certificates to our clients' children, along with hosting a delightful Children's Day Out at our corporate office.

Strengthening Communities: Sportsmanship and togetherness took centre stage during the Ace Cup (Jhamtani Premiere League 2026), featuring thrilling day-night cricket matches and the proud debut of our Women's Championship category. We also took a meaningful step towards strengthening our internal community through Shakti Edge, our women's leadership program focused on mentorship, growth, and empowering women to step into leadership roles.

Employee Well-being & Engagement: Within our workplace, initiatives like Thoughtful Tuesdays and the new Jhamtani Blueprint Series fostered continuous learning and confidence, while Fun Fit Fridays kept our energy high through fitness, balance, and laughter.

As we step into another promising year, every project delivered, every community event hosted, and every smile shared serves as a reminder of what drives us forward. We don't just build structures; we build trust, memories, and long-term relationships.

At Jhamtani, The Name is a Promise—a promise of quality, integrity, and lasting happiness that we will continue to honour in every life we touch.

Happy reading!

Warm regards,

Meenakshi Jhamtani

Unprecedented Success at the Ace Ayodhya Launch: A Journey of Leadership, Gratitude, and Triumph

I am Prasad Mane, and I had the privilege of leading the team during the grand launch of our project, Ace Ayodhya at Thergaon. We officially launched the project over three memorable days (May 22, 23, and 24 2026), and the response we received was nothing short of phenomenal.

Sensational Market Response & Sales Milestone

Despite a challenging market environment and tough external conditions, our clients especially those who had pre-booked their tokens turned up in huge numbers. Over the three-day launch window, our team successfully secured 300+ bookings. In a slow market, achieving this scale of sales stands as a testament to the project's unmatched value and appeal.

An Iconic Project with Heart and Value

Ace Ayodhya truly captured everyone's imagination:

Thematic & Luxurious Design: Centered around an authentic Ayodhya and Ram Mandir theme, offering a premium luxury segment.

40+ World-Class Amenities: Designed to elevate the lifestyle of every resident.

Prime Location & Value: Offered at highly lucrative, reasonable launch pricing that gave families a once-in-a-lifetime home buying opportunity.

Emotional Moments and Happy Families

The launch went far beyond business, it was deeply emotional. When we felicitated families after their bookings, we saw tears of joy in the eyes of many customers. Seeing children, parents, and extended families so visibly moved and thrilled to own a home was an extraordinarily rewarding experience for all of us.

The Power of Teamwork & Positive Energy

Over those three days, the energy on site was electrifying. My team and colleagues worked with immense passion, dedication, and positivity. The seamless synergy within the team made this remarkable result possible.

Heartfelt Gratitude

This success would not have been possible without the unwavering support of our leadership and management:

Our Directors: A sincere thank you to Meenakshi Ma'am and Anup Jhamtani Sir for their guidance and belief in us.

Our Senior Leadership & On-Site Support:

Heartfelt gratitude to Deepika Ma'am, Yash Chaturvedi Sir, and our Aniket Sir, for standing by us throughout the event.

Jhamtani: I am deeply grateful to Jhamtani for trusting me with this leadership responsibility. Proving worthy of this opportunity and delivering results has been one of the most satisfying achievements of my career.

The Ace Ayodhya launch has created strong market sentiment and set a high benchmark.

Building Trust, One Conversation at a Time – CREDAI D2C Conclave

The CREDAI D2C Conclave was more than an industry event—it was a valuable learning experience and a memorable milestone in my journey with Jhamtani.

As my first industry conclave with the organisation, I had the opportunity to witness the power of meaningful engagement. With over 1,200 channel partners under one roof, the event showcased how genuine conversations between developers and channel partners strengthen relationships and build lasting trust.

As an esteemed sponsor, Jhamtani's presence reflected its commitment to fostering meaningful industry connections. Working alongside the team on the ground gave me first-hand insight into the organisation's culture of collaboration, clear communication, and customer-first thinking. Every interaction reinforced the belief that strong relationships are built by listening, understanding, and engaging with purpose.

A key highlight of the conclave was the leadership address by Mr. Anup Jhamtani, Managing Director, Jhamtani Group, who shared his insights on the evolving real estate landscape and the brand's vision for the future. His address, along with the panel discussions and fireside chats, emphasised the importance of trust, innovation, and collaboration in driving sustainable industry growth.

Beyond the sessions, the conclave offered a deeper understanding of Jhamtani's values and the people who bring them to life. It demonstrated that while markets evolve and business landscapes change, meaningful relationships remain the foundation of long-term success.

Looking back, the CREDAI D2C Conclave was not just an introduction to the industry—it was a reminder that every conversation has the potential to create lasting partnerships and that trust continues to be the strongest pillar of sustainable growth.

Quality First – Building the Next Chapter at Jhamtani

Set against the scenic backdrop of Garud Machi, this year's Roadmap & AOP Day created the perfect environment for reflection, alignment and team bonding at Jhamtani – a brand that continues to build its identity around trust, quality and long-term customer value.

At Jhamtani, every year marks a new milestone in our journey – but this year's Roadmap & AOP Day felt particularly significant, and it happened to be my first one with the Group. Centered around the theme Quality First, the day was designed not only to review plans and targets, but to reinforce the philosophy that has become deeply associated with the Jhamtani brand – delivering quality not just in construction, but in planning, execution, customer experience and organizational culture.

The event began with an energizing start over breakfast, followed by a reflection on the achievements, learnings and growth of FY 25-26. As the organization continues to grow across projects and customer segments, the emphasis remained clear: every milestone achieved by Jhamtani must continue to stand on the foundation of consistency, reliability and quality-driven execution.

The sessions by Ms. Meenakshi Jhamtani and Mr. Anup Jhamtani set the tone for the day by sharing where Jhamtani is headed next and what will define the company's future growth. Their address strongly emphasized that Jhamtani has been built over years through customer trust, attention to detail and the collective efforts of every team member. They reiterated that maintaining quality standards – whether on-site, in systems, in communication or in customer relationships – will remain central to the organization's identity as it scales further.

One of the strongest aspects of the Roadmap Day was the active participation from every department. Teams from Sales, Construction, Liaison & Approvals, CRM, Branding & Marketing, HAS & Safety, Design & Planning, Finance, ERP & MIS, Legal and People shared their department-wise goals, operational challenges and execution strategies for the year ahead.

What stood out throughout the discussions was the understanding that quality is not limited to physical construction alone. At Jhamtani, quality also means timely communication, stronger processes, better coordination, safer sites, cleaner systems and a more seamless customer journey. Every department demonstrated how its role contributes toward strengthening the overall customer experience and protecting the reputation of the brand.

Several important priorities emerged during the sessions:

- Delivering superior construction quality and execution standards
- Strengthening process-driven systems and accountability
- Improving customer communication and response timelines
- Enhancing coordination between departments for smoother delivery
- Building safer, cleaner and more organized project environments
- Using technology and MIS systems for better operational control
- Creating a culture of ownership and continuous improvement across teams

The second half of the day brought a refreshing shift in energy. The trainer's session on Kaizen culture by Mr. Ajit Yadav encouraged everyone to think beyond day-to-day operations and focus on leadership, mindset and continuous self-improvement — values that are equally important in building a strong organization.

Award of the Year- a proud moment for the organization was the recognition of Mr. Dayal Jeswani, who received an award for his valuable contribution to the company's growth and his continued commitment toward strengthening the vision of the organisation.

The team-building activities led by Mr. Vinod Sutar brought enthusiasm, collaboration and positive energy to the day, strengthening relationships between teams outside the regular work environment. These moments reflected what truly defines the culture at Jhamtani — a professionally driven organization that continues to value people, teamwork and collective growth.

As the day concluded, there was a strong sense of clarity, motivation and alignment across the organization. More than an annual roadmap exercise, the event became a reminder that the future of Jhamtani will continue to be shaped by its commitment to quality, customer trust and execution excellence.

Diwali Dhamaka 2025: A Celebration to Remember

This year's Diwali Dhamaka at MDS Lawns wasn't just a celebration, it was an experience. My first Diwali with Jhamtani, and it truly set the bar high for what workplace culture can feel like.

Right from the start, it felt different. The invite wasn't addressed to just employees, it was for our families, too. That single gesture said so much about the brand's values. It wasn't about ticking off a calendar event; it was about creating a moment where work and warmth could coexist.

The evening had everything, a vibrant setup, laughter echoing across the lawns, and a stand-up ventriloquist who didn't just perform, but personalized the act for Jhamtani. Watching everyone laugh at inside jokes that only we'd get, that's when it hit me, this is what belonging looks like.

And then, the part that truly stood out: the directors personally meeting the families, asking about parents, kids, and even remembering small details about people's lives. It wasn't formality; it was genuine connection, something that's rare, yet unforgettable.

The awards that followed were the perfect surprise, each one introduced with a personalized note and poetic touch, celebrating not just achievements but the effort, consistency, and spirit behind them. Every awardee's moment felt heartfelt and genuine, making recognition itself an experience.

But beyond the music, lights, and laughter, the evening carried something deeper, a reminder that corporate culture isn't built in boardrooms; it's built in moments like these. When a company celebrates people beyond their designations, it becomes more than an organization; it becomes a community.

Days like these matter. Because they remind us that while deadlines may drive us, it's togetherness that defines us.

And this Diwali, Jhamtani did what it does best, it didn't just build spaces, it built memories.

At Jhamtani, our relationship with our clients doesn't end at registration—it begins there. Our annual cricket tournament brings together the ever-growing Jhamtani family in a celebration of community and sportsmanship. The Grand Finale Celebration

The event concluded with felicitations and a grand Gala Dinner, honoring winners, standout performers, and participants. Residents from different projects came together to celebrate, share stories, and strengthen the bond that makes the Jhamtani community special.

Looking Ahead: The Legacy Continues

As we look back on the cheers, the catches, and the standing ovations, we are reminded of why we do this. Jhamtani doesn't just build structures of brick and mortar; we build the stage upon which your life's best memories are performed.

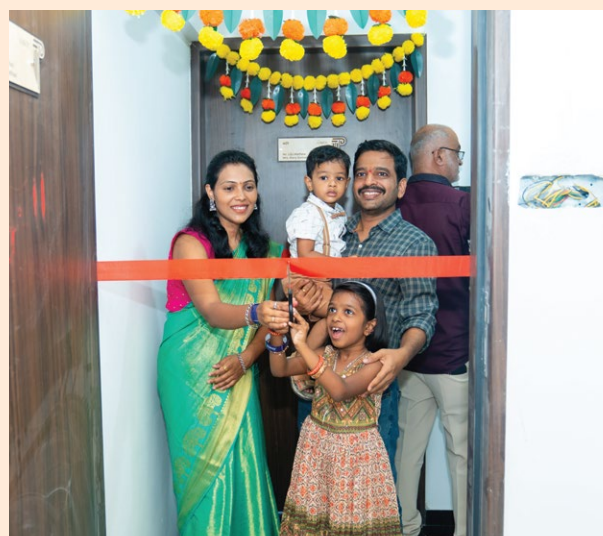

With more projects currently under construction and nearing delivery, next year's tournament promises to be even bigger. We are already looking at ways to expand the format and include even more sporting categories.

To every participant, every cheering parent, and every winner: Thank you for making the Ace Cup 2026 our most successful event, See you on the pitch next year!

Cultivating Curiosity: How Thoughtful Tuesday is Shaping Our Culture

Knowledge is most powerful when it flows freely. Inspired by the timeless wisdom of the Bhagavad Gita “Let noble thoughts come to us from every direction” we at Jhamtani have built a workplace culture where every voice matters, every idea is valued, and learning never stops.

At the heart of this belief is Thoughtful Tuesday, our signature initiative dedicated to knowledge sharing, personal growth, and people empowerment.

Empowering Voices, Building Confidence

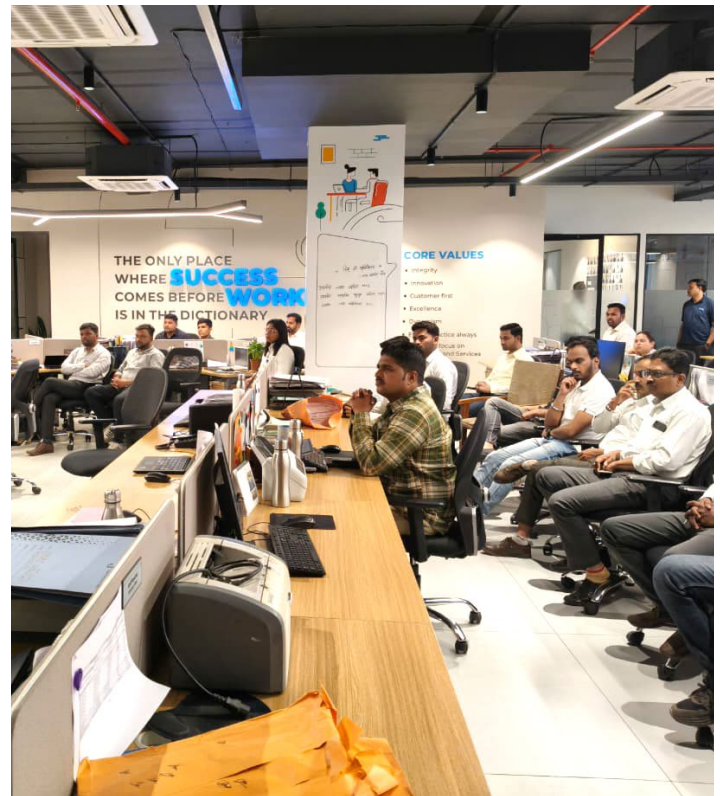

Last year alone, our team led over 50 employee - driven sessions. These interactive gatherings are designed to spark curiosity and push us outside our traditional comfort zones. By stepping up to lead a session, team members have:

- Built Public Speaking Confidence: Gained a safe, supportive platform to articulate thoughts and present before peers.
- Carved Their Unique Identity: Showcase personal expertise, unique hobbies, and distinct perspectives.

- Cultivated a Culture of Inclusion: Ensured an equal-opportunity environment where every level of the organization has a voice.

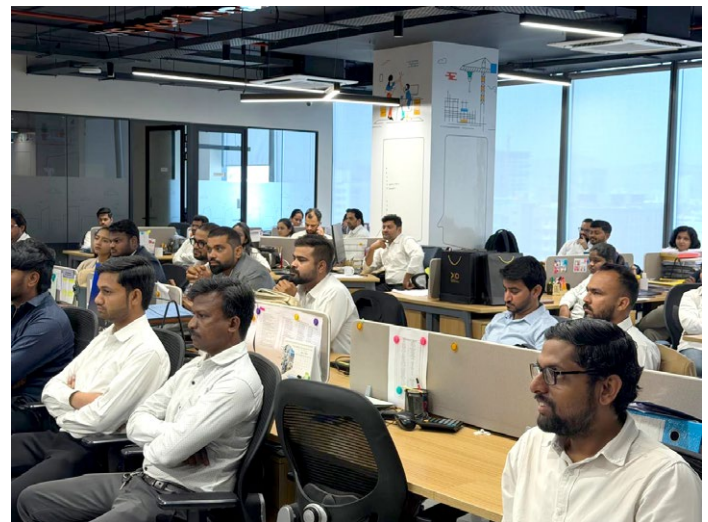

Thoughtful Tuesday goes beyond typical corporate training. It focuses on broader life lessons, personal development, and the art of learning and relearning. This shared openness creates a true sense of belonging and unity across our teams.

Unveiling the "Jhamtani Blueprint Series"

To build on this momentum, we recently launched the Jhamtani Blueprint Series under the Thoughtful Tuesday umbrella.

While our past sessions focused on holistic learning, the Blueprint Series zooms in on our core craft: the real estate lifecycle. Through this new track, employees gain a comprehensive, 360-degree view of how every business function—from land acquisition and design to construction, marketing, and customer care—adds value to the final project. Understanding the bigger picture helps us see how our individual roles drive collective success.

The Journey Ahead

Culture isn't built in a day; it is forged through shared experiences, open dialogue, and continuous growth. As we move forward, I encourage each of you to step up, host a session, and share your unique insights with the team.

A Promise That Continues to Shape Every Experience

A brand campaign creates awareness. A successful one creates belief.

Over the past few months, "Jhamtani – The Name is a Promise" has evolved beyond a marketing initiative to become the foundation of our brand communication. It reflects the values that have guided the organisation for four decades—trust, credibility, quality, and an unwavering commitment to customers.

Rather than introducing a new identity, the campaign reinforces what Jhamtani has always stood for. Every message, every interaction, and every development reflects a commitment that has been consistently honoured over the years.

Reinforcing the Brand Across Every Touchpoint

A promise gains meaning only when it is experienced consistently.

With this thought, the campaign has been integrated across every customer and stakeholder touchpoint, creating a unified brand experience.

From high-impact outdoor media across Pune to digital campaigns, project branding, site experience centres, corporate communication, marketing collaterals, and customer interactions, every platform has echoed the same philosophy. The consistency in messaging has strengthened brand recall while ensuring that customers experience one clear and unified identity wherever they engage with us.

More Than Visibility—Building Trust

The campaign was never intended to be a short-term communication exercise. It was designed to reinforce the trust that has been built over 40 years.

Every project delivered, every community created, and every customer relationship has contributed to this promise. By aligning all communications under one philosophy, the campaign has strengthened emotional connections with customers while creating a distinctive and memorable brand presence.

Its success lies not only in the visibility it has achieved but in the confidence it continues to inspire among homebuyers, channel partners, employees, and stakeholders.

A Philosophy That Guides Every Step

The campaign has also influenced the way we communicate internally. It serves as a constant reminder that every interaction—whether with a customer, a colleague, or a business partner—represents the values of the organisation.

This shared understanding ensures that the brand promise is reflected not only in our advertising but also in the way we work, collaborate, and deliver experiences every day.

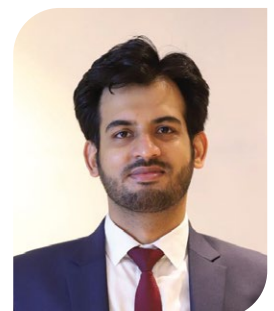

The Journey Ahead

As Jhamtani continues to grow, this philosophy will remain the guiding force behind every initiative, every project, and every customer experience. The campaign has laid a strong foundation for a consistent and recognisable brand voice—one that will continue to evolve while staying true to the values that define us.

Because at Jhamtani, a name carries responsibility, trust, and a commitment that extends far beyond construction.

Jhamtani. The Name is a Promise.

The Day I Gave a Kid a School Bag and Couldn't Stop Smiling

Rising Stars by Jhamtani, every family is an important part of our journey. Believing that happiness is best shared with loved ones, we organized a special Existing Client Kids Bag Distribution Programme to bring smiles to the youngest members of our JTribe family.

As a token of appreciation for the trust and support of our valued clients, each child received a beautifully designed bag customized with their name, making the gift feel unique and truly special. Inside every personalized bag was a delightful surprise—a Dreamy Certificate—created to celebrate their dreams, imagination, and bright future.

The joy on the children's faces and the warm appreciation from their parents made the programme a memorable celebration of togetherness. More than just a gift distribution, the initiative reflected our commitment to building meaningful relationships that extend beyond homes and into the hearts of the families we serve.

At Jhamtani, we believe that every thoughtful gesture strengthens the bond we share with our clients. We sincerely thank all our valued families for their continued trust and support. Together, we look forward to creating many more joyful moments and building a future filled with happiness, dreams, and lasting memories.

Childrens Day Out at Jhamtani

At Jhamtani, we believe that the true heartbeat of our organization is our people, and there is no joy quite like welcoming the youngest members of our extended family into our workspace for Children's Day out at the Jhamtani office. we were delighted to bridge the worlds of work and family by inviting our employees' children to experience the office, sparking curiosity and filling our halls with laughter. We decided to do something different and opened our doors to welcome the most important people in our lives—our children.

The office, usually busy with planning, meetings, and hard work, was transformed into a place of laughter and curiosity. It was a heartwarming sight to see our little ones sitting at their mothers' and fathers' workstations. With big smiles and wide eyes, they pretended to be the bosses for the day, getting a fun glimpse into where their parents spend their time.

The day was packed with excitement and energy. We set up a lively play area where the kids could run, play, and make new friends. The highlight of the event was the drawing competition, where our young artists let their imaginations run wild. Seeing their colorful and creative ideas come to life on paper was a treat for everyone in the office.

To wrap up the celebrations, we distributed school bags and stationery kits to the children. Watching their faces light up as they received their new gifts was the perfect way to end the day.

It was truly a day well spent, bridging the gap between work and home. Events like these remind us that while we work hard to build homes for others, the real joy comes from the family we build together here at Jhamtani. We are grateful to everyone who helped make this day so special for our Jhamtani family.

Shakti Edge: Where Potential Meets Leadership

This year, Women's Day held a deeper meaning for us. While the construction and real estate industry has traditionally seen limited female representation, the narrative is steadily evolving. Women today are not just supporting growth from the sidelines—they are actively shaping industries, taking on leadership roles, and driving meaningful change.

At Jhamtani, this shift is already in motion, with women constituting 23% of our workforce - a reflection of our commitment to building a more inclusive and balanced organisation.

Taking this vision forward, we introduced 'Shakti Edge' - a dedicated mentorship program for women at Jhamtani, under the JTribe initiative.

Shakti Edge is designed to nurture, guide, and elevate women professionals within the organisation. Over the next six months, the selected participants will undergo structured mentorship, leadership development, and skill-building sessions aimed at accelerating both their personal and professional growth. The program focuses on building confidence, strengthening decision-making abilities, and preparing participants to take on larger leadership roles.

Following a detailed assessment process, six women were selected for this inaugural cohort, representing diverse functions across the organisation, including Sanjot Shriram and Anuja Sukre from Sales, Eshika Patil from Marketing, Vishakha Mali from Accounts, Shruti Dangi from Administration and me - bringing together varied perspectives and strengths into one transformative journey.

We are grateful and look forward to witnessing the growth as we evolve into confident leaders within the organisation.

As we embark on this journey together, Shakti Edge stands as a meaningful step towards building a more inclusive, empowered, and future-ready organisation, where every individual has the opportunity to lead, grow, and thrive.

Fun Fit Friday at Jhamtani

Continuing our tradition of Fun Fit Friday, we brought our team together for another exciting and energetic session at Jhamtani.

This month, we organized a series of fun and engaging games in collaboration with our trainer, Mr. Pravin Shelar, designed to promote teamwork, friendly competition, and plenty of laughter.

The first challenge tested everyone's focus, coordination, and patience. Participants had to drop a straw into a bottle while keeping one eye shut and looking through a tiny funnel with the other eye. What seemed like a simple task turned into a fun-filled challenge, keeping everyone entertained as colleagues cheered each other on. Participants were asked to switch on their mobile phones in selfie mode and complete the same task by looking only at their phone screen instead of directly at the bottle. This unexpected variation tested their hand-eye coordination, focus, and perception even further.

The second game focused on physical fitness, balance, and flexibility. Participants were challenged to stand on one leg with their hands folded behind their backs, bend down without losing balance, and pick up a sheet of paper placed between two bottles using only their mouth. While the task sounded simple, it demanded a great deal of stability, coordination, and flexibility.

To conclude the session on a light-hearted note, we planned a fun and relaxing activity. Participants were asked to pick a chit and perform the task written on it, every chit brought a new surprise. It was the perfect way to wrap up the games, leaving everyone smiling and strengthening the bond among teammates.

At Jhamtani, we believe the true essence of Fun Fit Friday is to encourage our team to step away from their daily routines, stay active, and connect with one another in a fun and meaningful way. These sessions are designed to promote physical well-being, reduce stress, and strengthen team spirit through engaging activities and shared experiences. Every Fun Fit Friday reminds us that a healthy, happy, and connected workplace is the foundation of a stronger team.

Takeaways from Coffee with the Director

As the informal introductions settled, the room shifted into a dynamic exchange of ideas. The highlight of the session was undoubtedly the open-floor Q&A, where our new team members were invited to engage in a candid dialogue with our Managing Director, Mr. Anup Jhamtani.

What followed was not a traditional corporate briefing, but a genuine exchange of visions. The session served as a platform to demystify the leadership journey and provide clarity on the company's trajectory for the coming fiscal year. Mr. Anup Jhamtani spoke at length about the importance of adaptability and the core values that define the Jhamtani - precision, customer-centricity, and sustainable growth.

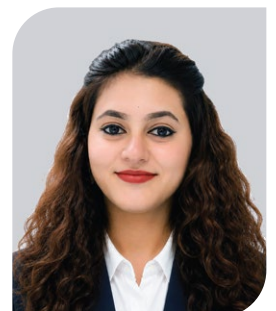

When asked about his vision for the future, Anup Sir emphasized that our projects are more than just concrete and steel; they are the backdrops for our clients' life memories. He encouraged the new joiners to look beyond their specific KRAs and understand the broader impact their work has on the community and the real estate landscape in Pune.

The interaction was marked by a refreshing level of transparency. From questions regarding the industry's shift toward new technology and ERP implementation to personal queries about maintaining professional balance, no topic was off-limits. For many, the opportunity to have a one-on-one conversation with the person steering the company's vision provided a sense of belonging and direction that is hard to find in larger organizations.

As the coffee cups were cleared, the sentiment in the room was palpable. The session succeeded in doing exactly what it set out to achieve: dismantling hierarchical barriers and fostering a culture of openness.

These quarterly sessions are more than just a calendar event; they are a vital part of the Jhamtani ethos. By bridging the gap between leadership and the team, we ensure that as we grow, we remain aligned in our goals and connected in our spirit. We look forward to seeing the energy and fresh perspectives these new joiners bring to our projects in the months ahead.
