Editor's Note

Dear Readers,

Greetings from Jhamtani!

As we unfold the new edition of JTribe Monthly Buzz, we are equally excited about the beginning of a new quarter in July. Quarter 1 has been an excellent start to this financial year, and we're happy to share some of our recent achievements. We completed the possession of 188 homes at Ace Abode A and B wings, launched our new project Jhamtani Elevate at Mundhwa, and laid out a clear and detailed path for the year through Road Map Day 2025. We are proud to have recorded the highest Q1 sales in Jhamtani's history and received prestigious recognitions such as the Lifting India – Safety Awards 2025 for Jhamtani Realty Pvt. Ltd. and the Directors Club Pune Award for Jhamtani Cerakraft.

In the month of June, we dedicated our time to various wellness and CSR activities. On the 11th International Yoga Day, we hosted a yoga session for all our employees at the Head Office in association with Bhartiya Yog Sansthan—certified by the Ayush Mantralaya.

We also conducted yoga sessions at one of our projects, Vision Ace, which saw participation from nearly 70 residents. Along with wellness, we emphasized the importance of Mediclaim and Insurance for our employees through an awareness session led by Mr. Harsh Sewani (Director – Sewani Insurance). We also organized a session on Teamwork & Mutual Bonding by Ms. Nupur Singh (Corporate Trainer and Facilitator). These sessions were part of our monthly initiatives: Thoughtful Tuesdays and Foody Fridays, respectively.

Jhamtani, in association with the Rotary Club of Pimpri, has started a 'Happy School' at the Ace Atmosphere site in Ravet. The school was inaugurated by Shri Rahul Chopda (Satyam Jewellers Pvt. Ltd.) and Rtn. Santosh Giranje, President of the Rotary Club of Pimpri. It is aimed at educating the children of site labourers.

As we gear up for Quarter 2, we have many exciting developments in the pipeline, including new project launches in Mundhwa and Pimple Saudagar. With our Annual Day—a time of grand celebration—just around the corner, the office is buzzing with anticipation!

At Jhamtani, we remain committed to community-building initiatives through JTribe, and we're grateful for the love and support you've shown by actively engaging in our Referral Programs. We always welcome your feedback and suggestions. Feel free to write to us at jconnect@jhamtani.com.

Happy Reading!

Warm regards,

Meenakshi Jhamtani

The Unifying Force: 3 Ways to Combat Team Misalignment and Boost Collaboration

When teams are not aligned, it doesn't just affect your productivity—it can tear an organization apart!

Sales blames marketing.
Marketing blames product.
Product blames operations.

And before you know it, you're not one company—you're five departments at war.

Is your organisation facing similar challenges, read on!

When teams aren't working towards a common higher goal, it's easy to fall into a "let me just save my ass to survive here" mindset.

When teams aren't working towards a common higher goal, it's easy to fall into a "let me just save my ass to survive here" mindset.

So, what's missing here?

- 1 Trust.
- 2 Connection.
- 3 Shared purpose.

And that's where team building comes in.

Not just as a fun (fri)day session, but as a strategic investment in human alignment.

When people feel connected, they collaborate better.

When they're aligned to the bigger picture, they make smarter decisions.

And when they trust each other, they solve problems—together.

Here are 3 ways companies can fix team misalignment and build stronger teams:

1. Facilitate regular cross-functional team building exercises:

Don't just focus on internal team bonding. Let people across departments understand each other's challenges, workflows, and wins.

2. Anchor teams to the 'why' of the organisation:

Reinforce the mission often. Not just the "what they're doing", but the "why they are doing".

Shared vision dissolves divisions. (Refer "Start with Why" by Simon Sinek to know more)

3. Recognize and reward collaborative wins

Make cross-functional success visible. When teams win together, they start showing up for each other more.

In the end, business is not just about strategy—it's about synergy.

Concluded a Team-building session with fantastic participants from Jhamtani group.

The activities were strategically designed to enhance connectivity between HODs and managers across all functions.

A big thanks to Anup Jhamtani ji and Meenakshi Jhamtani ji for believing in me and for being so warm, approachable and candid. You are a big inspiration!

Thank you Dr. Pratik P. SURANA for this amazing opportunity and Prachi Jinturkar and Reshma Soman for your immense support and seamless coordination.

What are you doing to keep your teams connected and aligned?

Ms. Nupur Singh
Corporate Trainer & Facilitator

Building a Culture of Security: Our Journey with Jhamtani

At Sewani Insurance, our philosophy has always been simple—protection that empowers. Over the last decade, our journey with Jhamtani has been a testimony to that belief.

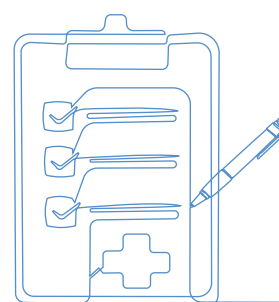

This month, we had the privilege of conducting an awareness session on corporate insurance for Jhamtani's team. It was more than just a discussion on policies—it was a conversation about care, foresight, and the importance of protecting the people who help build an organization every day.

Over the years, we've partnered with Jhamtani to ensure that their most valuable asset—their people—are covered against unforeseen challenges. From health and life insurance to more complex corporate risk solutions, we've continuously evolved our offerings to meet the growing and changing needs of their workforce.

What makes this relationship truly special is not just its longevity, but the shared commitment to employee well-being. We're proud to be more than just insurance providers—we're risk advisors, support systems, and partners in every sense.

As we look ahead, we remain dedicated to helping Jhamtani build a secure, informed, and protected workplace—because real growth happens when people feel safe.

Jhamtani and Rotary Club of Pimpri Launch 'Happy School' at Ace Atmosphere Site

With structured learning, dedicated educators, and a child-friendly atmosphere, the Happy School is set to bring smiles and knowledge to many young minds — truly living up to its name.

This project stands as a shining example of how public-private partnerships can make a real difference in the lives of underprivileged communities.

“Education is the most powerful weapon which you can use to change the world.”

In a commendable step towards social upliftment, Jhamtani, in collaboration with the Rotary Club of Pimpri, has inaugurated a ‘Happy School’ at the Ace Atmosphere project site in Ravet. This initiative is designed to provide basic education and a nurturing environment to the children of construction site labourers.

The inauguration ceremony was graced by Shri Rahul Chopda of Satyam Jewellers Pvt. Ltd. and Rtn. Santosh Giranje, President of the Rotary Club of Pimpri. Their presence marked a strong commitment to community development and the transformative power of education.

The Happy School initiative reflects Jhamtani's dedication to creating inclusive spaces not just for residents, but for every stakeholder involved in the construction journey. The school aims to bridge the educational gap for children who often miss out on early learning opportunities due to their transient lifestyle.

Celebration of Jhamtani Cerakraft

It gives me immense joy and pride to stand before you all today as we celebrate the journey and achievements of Jhamtani Cerakraft.

As a team, we are not just meeting expectations — we are creating milestones and reaching new heights of success.

Every accomplishment we've had is the result of strong planning, collaborative teamwork, and innovative strategies. From ideation to execution, from paper to reality—we thrive on turning plans into action and goals into achievements. This process is what keeps us energized and motivated to move forward.

In sales, there is no final destination—only new targets, higher expectations, and fresh challenges. Our organization keeps that hunger alive, always encouraging us to outperform ourselves. I would especially like to appreciate Mr. Ambadas, Mr. Suraj, Mr. Kailas, and Mrs. Akshada, who are always on the front line—ready, motivated, and committed to reaching their goals.

At Cerakraft, we believe that customer service is our foundation. Our goal is simple yet powerful: to provide high-quality materials that meet our clients' needs and help them build the home of their dreams.

Our motto says it best:

Jhamtani Cerakraft – “Create Inspiring Spaces”

And that's exactly what we aim to do, every single day.

We hope to continue this journey with the same passion and commitment in the years ahead, and we look forward to serving you even better in the future.

CORE HIGHLIGHTS

Yoga Day Celebration for JTribe

On June 21, 2025, the JHAMTANI Head Office came together to celebrate International Yoga Day, transforming a regular workday into a moment of collective well-being and introspection. For real estate professionals, accustomed to the industry's relentless pace, this event offered a valuable opportunity to reconnect with their inner selves.

The real estate market's constant fluctuations, demanding deadlines, client expectations, site visits, and complex negotiations are all part of the job. This field demands sharp focus, resilience, and a clear mind—qualities that yoga inherently cultivates.

Yoga: A Blueprint for Well-being in Real Estate

Grounding Amidst the Grind: Our days are often a whirlwind of calls, meetings, and property tours. Yoga provided an essential pause, a moment to ground ourselves. It proved to be a powerful tool for stress reduction, helping us manage the pressures of closing deals and navigating market shifts with calm and clarity. A clear head truly makes for better decisions, whether analyzing a property's potential or structuring a complex deal.

Sharpening Our Focus: In real estate, attention to detail is paramount; one missed clause or overlooked aspect can have significant implications. Yoga, with its emphasis on breath and mindful movement, proved excellent for improving concentration and mental acuity. It helped us stay sharp, focused, and present, ensuring we're always at the top of our game when advising clients or strategizing new projects.

Building Stamina for the Long Haul: Long hours, desk work, and frequent movement between sites can take a toll on physical well-being. Yoga's postures and stretches were perfect for improving flexibility, strengthening core muscles, and enhancing overall physical health. It helped combat the effects of sedentary work and kept us agile for those busy days, preventing burnout and promoting sustained energy.

Connecting as a Community: Beyond individual benefits, celebrating Yoga Day together at the Head Office fostered a beautiful sense of community. Sharing this experience built camaraderie, strengthened our team bonds, and reinforced a positive, supportive work environment. This collective well-being ultimately translated into a more harmonious and productive team, essential for successful collaborations in large-scale real estate ventures.

As we rolled out our mats on June 21st, it was clear that it was more than just an hour of poses. It was an investment in our collective well-being, a way to enhance our professional capabilities, and a reinforcement of the vibrant culture that makes JHAMTANI a great place to work. We embraced the opportunity to breathe, balance, and become even more effective in shaping the future of real estate.

CORE HIGHLIGHTS

Enhanced Quality of Life: A Holistic Approach

As we navigate the demands of our professional lives, it's easy to focus solely on career progression and productivity. However, true fulfillment extends beyond the boardroom. Enhanced Quality of Life is about cultivating a holistic well-being that encompasses our physical, mental, and emotional states, ultimately leading to a more satisfying and productive existence.

Beyond the Grind: Prioritizing Well-being

For too long, the pursuit of success has been synonymous with relentless work hours and pushing personal limits. But what if we redefined success to include a robust quality of life? This isn't about working less, but about working smarter and living richer. It's about recognizing that a well-rested mind is a more creative mind, and a healthy body is a more resilient one. Prioritizing well-being means making conscious choices: opting for a nutritious meal over convenience, taking a moment to stretch and breathe during a busy day, or simply stepping away from screens to connect with loved ones.

The Power of Purpose and Connection

While individual choices are crucial, the concept of enhanced quality of life also extends to our sense of purpose and connection. Do you feel your work contributes meaningfully? Do you have strong relationships both inside and outside the office? A sense of purpose, whether through our professional contributions or personal passions, adds depth and meaning to our days. Similarly, fostering strong connections with colleagues, friends, and family provides a vital support system and enriches our emotional landscape.

Small Steps, Big Impact

So, how do we begin to enhance our quality of life in practical ways? It doesn't require a radical overhaul, but rather a series of mindful decisions. Consider incorporating small, positive habits into your daily routine:.

Mindful Breaks: Step away from your desk for 5-10 minutes every couple of hours. Take a short walk, do some light stretches, or simply close your eyes and focus on your breath.

Prioritize Sleep: Aim for 7-8 hours of quality sleep each night. A well-rested body and mind are foundational for productivity and mood.

Nutritious Choices: Be conscious of what you eat. Fueling your body with healthy food can significantly impact your energy levels and focus.

Connect and Engage: Make time for social interactions, both professional and personal. Engage in hobbies or activities that bring you joy.

Learn and Grow: Continuously learning, whether it's a new skill or a new perspective, keeps our minds sharp and life engaging.

Jhamtani Marks Highest-Ever Q1 Sales

Jhamtani recently hosted a joyous celebration to commemorate a historic milestone – achieving the highest-ever Q1 sales in the company's history. This momentous occasion offered a chance to reflect on the relentless dedication, collaborative spirit, and focused drive that made this achievement possible.

The Spirit of Togetherness

The celebration brought together teams from across departments – Sales, Marketing, CRM, Planning, Execution, Admin, and more – all united to acknowledge the collective effort behind this success. It wasn't just a celebration of numbers, but a heartfelt recognition of the people who made it happen. The highlight of the event was a cake-cutting ceremony held at the Head Office. As the leadership team, department heads, and core contributors stood together, the room echoed with cheers, claps, and shared pride. The cake symbolized more than just success – it represented unity, momentum, and the sweet rewards of hard work.

Words of Encouragement

Speaking on the occasion, the leadership expressed deep gratitude to the entire Jhamtani family for their commitment and exceptional performance. "This milestone is not just about numbers; it's about setting a standard for what's possible when we work with passion and purpose," they shared.

Here's to a record-breaking Q1 – and an even more impactful year ahead.

CORE HIGHLIGHTS

Strength in Silence

In the journey of life, we are never truly alone. Along the way, we encounter silent supporters – our pillars of strength.

You may know them as unsung heroes, the ones who stood in the background yet carried us forward with quiet resilience.

They are the hands that held us, the hearts that steadied us when our own faltered.

They may not seek recognition, but their presence shapes our story in ways words often fail to capture.

Having such a firm thought process, I feel compelled to share a few moments from my life—instances where these incredible souls appeared, often unexpectedly, and carried me through.

Their strength became my own. Their belief, a torch when mine had flickered.

They never asked for praise, nor did they announce their arrival with grand gestures. Sometimes, it was a simple word at the right time, a quiet presence in the chaos, or just a reassuring smile that said, “You’re not alone.”

In their calm, I found courage. In their silence, I heard reassurance louder than any spoken word. It wasn’t the applause that shaped me, but the quiet company that never left my side when the lights went dim.

So, as I pen down these moments, this isn’t just a recollection—it’s a quiet tribute. To the ones who asked for nothing but gave everything. To the ones whose names may not echo in crowds but live on in the quiet strength they left behind. May we recognize them, celebrate them, and maybe—just maybe—be that silent strength for someone else.

Let’s begin...
